Then Ask Sid!

www.asksid.net

is a new online resource for all your information needs.

What is AskSid?

A website and directory funded by Sheffield City Council and developed by Sheffield Information Link in partnership with key city wide organisations, pulling together information from trusted sources to develop one central resource of information for children, young people, practitioners, parents and carers.

What if I don't have access to the internet?

For people with no access to the internet our friendly team are on hand to help you find the information you need.

Children's Zone

Ask Sid about fun things to do like:

- Dance and music classes
- Swimming and sports clubs
- Cool birthday party venues

And who to talk to about bullying, staying healthy and much more.

Parent's and Carers Zone

Ask Sid for information about:

- Childcare and leisure activities
- Parenting
- Family support

And organisations to support children with disabilities, health needs and much more.

Young People's Zone

Ask Sid for information about:

- Youth clubs and leisure activities
- Education and training
- Venues and resources

And who to talk to about addiction, sexual health and much more.

Practitioner's Zone

Ask Sid enables access to information on city wide support services, activities and events in your area at the click of a button. Its multi-agency approach to information delivery has been developed into a single authoritative source to assist practitioners from any discipline to meet the information duty placed upon them.
