Subject Content & Key Points

This course is designed to provide specialist work-related learning around a range of business issues, where you will look at how small businesses are established, developed and become successful, while looking at current affairs and the impact of the wider business world.

The main areas of learning include:

- Introduction to business & legal start-ups.
- Entrepreneurs & Asset Protection
- Customer Needs & Consumer Law
- Marketing
- Preparing for work
- Human Resources & Employment Law
- Finance & Accounting
- Setting up a business enterprise
- Ethics & Current Affairs

In business, we try to make learning fun and enjoyable for all, and therefore we link all activities to real businesses, such as Coca Cola, Our Cow Molly, Apple, etc. We also investigate worldwide events and current media stories which affect our daily lives and businesses.

Assessment – How you will get your final grade

Your vocational course is made up of a number of units, a majority of which, will be internally assessed through controlled tests, which will be internally assessed.

There will also be an exam (value of grade TBC) which is externally marked by the chosen exam board.

When you have completed all the units of the course you will receive an overall grade for your qualification. This is the grade that will be shown on your certificate and that you should give when you apply for further education or employment.
